The Adventure Park
AT LONG ISLAND

AN EPIC DAY OF ADVENTURE

If there's a better way to celebrate a birthday for kids—and even adults who refuse to grow up—we haven't found it yet.

There are three reasons why a day in the trees makes for the most adventurous, exciting, memorable birthday:

1

The environment is unique, different, fun. It gets everyone working together, helping each other, laughing together.

2

The rush everyone feels as they zip and climb is something they'll remember every time they think back to that awesome day .

3

There's a massive sense of accomplishment everyone feels at the end of each course (and the planner gets to feel accomplished for organizing a birthday that offers some true bragging rights!

"Took teens/tweens for birthday celebration. Everyone loved the challenge of the courses and rush of the zips! The staff kind, helpful, supportive. The twilight lights were beautiful. We'll definitely try it again."
